Reports:

- Executive Reports
 - Jennifer Ramnarine (President)
 - Jennifer encouraged council to run for elections. If you want to learn more about different positions you can reach out to any of the executives.
 - Jennifer provided a reminder of the purpose of equity officers and how they are separate from the executive. If there is an equity issue it is important to reach out directly to the equity officers as they can provide the most support. Their email is casg.equityofficers@gmail.com
 - Dakota Livingston (VP Internal)
 - Dakota thanked everyone who had come out to equity training
 - If you were unable to attend equity training, reach out to Dakota with ideas to incorporate equity into your position in order to receive your CCR credit.
 - Dakota announced that CASG's first Wellness Day will be hosted in the last week of March. If you have any ideas or are passionate about wellness, reach out to Dakota to share ideas.
 - Dakota update council that the newsletter will be sent out in the next few days
 - Vanessa Buecking (VP Operations)
 - Vanessa thanked everyone who came out to the career services workshop
 - Announced that Kevin Caswell was elected as CEO for elections
 - Vanessa asked promo committee to reach out to her with ideas you have for scholarships
 - Pierce Burch (VP Academic)
 - Pierce updated council that Affirmative Action Scholarships are starting to be promoted and that regular CASG scholarships are open as well
 - If you have any questions about the scholarships please email Pierce vpacademic@cags.ca

- Motion to Pass the Writ of Elections 2022

Moved: Kevin Caswell
